

Lisa Kokin, Panacea Plus
Self-help book spines, thread, mull
61 x 56 inches, 2010

Art Coaching & Mentoring with LISA KOKIN

Lisa Kokin is now accepting mentorships with artists who:

- want a sustained one-on-one relationship to critique and develop their work
- are preparing a portfolio for consideration for galleries or graduate school
- have an upcoming exhibition and want support and feedback to select work
- want to begin exhibiting their work and need help in developing a body of work to submit for consideration for exhibitions
- benefit from a consistent for feedback in order to maintain a sustained art practice to generate new work

Each mentorship will be tailored to the needs of the individual and will meet for a minimum of one hour per month to be arranged according to the needs and schedule of each person. Sessions to be completed within six months.

Fee: $495 for six hours

Meetings are at Lisa Kokin's studio in El Sobrante, located 20 min. from both Berkeley and the Richmond / San Rafael Bridge.

Long-distance mentoring now available through Skype.

Lisa Kokin's work in artist's books, mixed media installation, assemblage and sculpture is about memory, history, and social commentary. Her work has been exhibited in numerous solo and group exhibitions in the United States and abroad. A recipient of a California Arts Council Individual Artist's Fellowship and a Eureka Fellowship from the Fleishhacker Foundation, Ms. Kokin's work is in numerous public and private collections. She is represented by the Donna Seager Gallery in San Rafael, CA and and the Tayloe Piggott Gallery in Jackson, WY.